CONDITION OF THE MARKETS

A Day of Great Excitement in Provisions, Feeling Being Almost Panicky.

Prices Decline Rapidly, but a Partial Reaction Occurs in the Afternoon-Wheat Lower but Strong-Corn Weak and Lower.

MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS.

A Dull Market in New York, with an Occastonal Spurt of Activity. NEW YORK, Aug. 2-Money on call was easy at 1 to 14 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 426 per cent. Sterling exchange was fairly active and steady at $4.85 for sixty-day bills, and $4.871 for demand. The total sale of stocks to-day were 181,807 shares, including the following: Canada Southern, 4,300; Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, 7,110; Erie, 3,520; Lake Shore, 22,407; Michigan Central, 8,414; Missouri Pacific, 3,820; Northwestern, 4,080; Northern Pacific preferred, 3,237; Pacific Mail, 6,105; Reading, 11,700; Richmond & West Point, 3,525; St. Paul, 21,865; Texas Pacific, 7,735; Western Union, 13,085; Union Pacific, 12,283; Wheeling & Lake Erie preferred,

The spot market to-day was dull except in spots, and displayed a heavy tone almost througout the day, but fluctuations were very narrow and the dealings possessed very little featare of interest. The buying of Lake Shore, which sell continues, made the Vanderbilt shares the features of the day, though, except in Lake store, there was very little animation, and New York Central did not record a single sale at any price during the entire day. The talk upon the street, though somewhat premature, is that the next dividend will be at the rate of 5 per cent, per annum, and it has had some influence in maintaining the advance in the stock. There were some sharp gains in the inactive list, and Wheeling, Lake Erie, C., C., C. & I and Oregon Improvement were the most prominent, though all of them reacted somewhat toward the close. The general list, however, did not sympathize with the inprovement in the stocks mentioned, and following the lead of St. Paul, were feverish and weak almost the entire day. There was free realizing in Union Pacific and Western Union, and the report of earnings of the former had some effect in keeping its price down. The coal stocks were comparatively neglected, and the dealings in Reading up to the last hour, when a few round amounts changed hands, were only about 4,000 shares. Boston and Philadelphia were both buyers, while London bought and sold during the day. The London quotations came somewhat lower this morning, and a rather heavy opening in response was the result here, first prices being generally from to per cent. below last evening's figures. New England and the Vanderbilts led a rally in the early trading, but the list then became feverish and weak, and notwithstanding the strength in Lake Shore, remained generally heavy throughout the afternoon, and the lowest prices were, in most cases, established in the last hour. The dealings continued without feature, and after a slight reaction the market finally closed about steady at close to opening prices for most of the list. The final changes in the active list are irregular but generally in the direction of lower prices and confined to fractional amounts only, except in Hocking Valley, which yielded 11 per

The dealings in railroad bonds were in close sympathy with the trading in shares, being quiet with the smallest fluctuations and the final outcome of the day's business irregular changes of fractions. The total sales were $1,236,000. Government bonds were dull and steady.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.-Excitement bordering ou panic prevailed in the market for hog products to-day. Trading was extremely brisk. Prices declined very rapidly, and considerable property carried on slim margins or limited to certain figures was offered on the market, and added to the general depression. The reported stock of lard on hand caused a decidedly weaker feeling in that article, and "shorts" in mess pork and short ribs took advantage of the situation and enlarged their lines. "Longs" were anxious to realize, and all outside influences were lost sight of for the moment, the main effort being to dispose of the property. At inside figures the de-mand showed some improvement and prices gradually rallied to medium figures and the market showed more steadiness. The near and the deferred deliveries shared in the decline, the former, however, more than the lat-ter. The wildest fluctuation was in pork. There was considerable pressure to sell during the early part of the session, small and round lots being freely offered. Prices opened fully 74 @10c lower, but temporarily rallied 74c. Then the market weakened and prices declined 90 @ 95c quite rapidly, with liberal sales at the declining scale. Later the market showed a little more strength and prices rallied 40 @ 45c, and ruled with considerable steadiness to the close. Lard offerings were largely increased, while the demand was only fair, and prices suffered a reaction of 15 a 20c per 100 pounds, with a good trade reported at the reduction. Later the market showed more steadiness and prices rallied 24 75c, and closed steady. Short-ribs were weak during the greater portion of the day. Offerings were free, especially for September delivery, while the demand was only fair. Prices on the whole range declined 150 market did not hold its own to day. The news was "bullish" from nearly every stand-point, but general speculative support was lacking and values settled back $20c. There was evidence of a concerted effort on the part of leading local operators to depress values by using foreign houses to sell through. Whether, as many insisted, the drive was made to get a good market to buy on, is an undecided question. Certain it is that the big traders were making the maximum amount of noise and a minimum amount of selling. September wheat opened at 84tc. sold off to 83tc, between which point and 83tc it fluctuated most of the day. Shortly after 12 o'clock the price got down to 831 @832c, and the feeling was one of weakness. Good buying occurred later, and the market advanced ic, closing stubbornly strong at a 2c cheaper basis than yesterday. The corn market was weak and lower. The opening was strong at 1 2 to above yesterday's closing range-viz.: At 47c for September and 46% for October; September sold up to 47% @47%, and October to 46%. That proved to be the top. The bottom was 46tc for September and 451 70 451c for October. The decline represents a shrinkage of Fale. During most of the session the greatest weakness was in the deferred futures, the pressure upon year and May causing noticeable heaviness. Oats were dull and weak, with a fractional decline noted in futures. There was no support; with few buying orders, and while moderate favor was shown near futures, the long months were neglected. The leading features ranged as follows: Opening. Highest. Lowest. Closing.

INDIANAPOLIS MARKETS.

Trade a Little Slow Owing to the Extreme Heat-The Duliness but Temporary.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2. In most departments to-day trade was rather quiet, and there were but few fluctuations in values. The belief prevails that as soon as the weather takes on a fall-like character business will boom in all departments. Grocers report sugars unchanged but a shade lower East; coffee steady and moving out fairly well. Eastern papers report a great scarcity of salt fish. The salt fish dealers East say they never were in such a predicament as they are at present. They are out of mackerel and codfish, and cannot get half enough to fill the orders that are coming in. Prices of mackerel are bigher than they have ever been in the lives of the present generation, and are still ascending. Two vessels have arrived at Gloucester from Cape Shore with 100 barrels of mackerel each; another with 200 barrels, but several bave returned with from five to fifty barrels, and two or three came home empty. No large schools have appeared in the North bey, and but few have been caught around Prince Edwards Island. Other groceries firm and unchanged in price. The wool market shows some signs of life. The market is entirely free from the speculative feeling which has usually prevailed at the opening of the season. and less wool has been purchased in the country on manufacturers' account than for several years past. This means that more of the staple will be sold on commission and that an increased business may be expected later on. The produce markets are active, receipts of fruits and vegetables large, and losses, as well, large-so fast do fruits and some kinds of vegetables rot this extremely warm weather. Poultry is coming in freely, and prices drooping. Eggs rule steady at quotations. Candling shows that an unusually large per cent. of the arrivals are poor. Good butter is still scarce and in good demand. The hide market is more active, but there are no indications of better prices.

There was a fair attendance on 'Change today, and on several grades of cereals bidding was quite spirited. The Indianapolis Market

The movement of grain continues to increase. Inspections for past two days amount to 196 cars, against 168 cars for preceding period. Wheat-Market is quiet, with a good demand at prices current. Chief-Justice Fuller's Residence. Washington Special.

Chief-justice Melville W. Fuller has fixed upon his residence in this city. He has chosen one of the finest houses in Washington, located on Fourteenth street, just beyond the boundary, on an elevation known as College Hill It is situated a stone's throw from Justice Harlan's handsome suburban palace, and but one block west of the house of the late General Logan. The house is of Vermont granite, built in chateau style, and commands a magnificent view of the city from the Capitol to the Washington monument. It is owned by Mr. A. L. Barber, a wealthy contractor of this city, who built it four or five years ago for his own occupancy. Judge Fuller inspected it on Saturday, and yesterday agreed to lease it for a term of years. He will return to Chicago after calling upon the President, who reaches home to-day, and will not take up his permanent residence here until September. He will not take the cath of office until that date. Washington society is looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the arrival of Judge Fuller's charming wife and eight beautiful daughters.

Warm Weather Philosophy.

Chicago Mail. Suicides are sad-death is always sad-but the law of suicide operates toward a survival of the fittest. Suicides decrease the number of the weak. They are not desirable propagators.
